SEVEN INNING CONTEST AT UNION WELL PLAYED

FEATURES OF GAME

McAlister's Twirling and Major's Hitting For Anderson Extra Good

Special to The Intelligencer.
Union, August 5.—Anderson defeated Greenville in a 7 inning game through slow fielding by the Greenville players. McDonald of Greenville hit for three bases, but was caught trying to make it a homer. The features of the game were the tight pitching of McAlister and hitting of Major for Anderson and the fielding of S. Roberts for Greenville. Both pitchers were in fine form.
McColl's bunch will go to Greenville tomorrow for three games.

Curry Failed to Touch Third and Was Called Out by Umpire Frey

Special to The Intelligencer.
Spartanburg, August 5.—Spartanburg made it three straight over Gaffney this afternoon by winning the game easily by score of 7 to 3. Guthrie was on the mound again for the fourth and Manager Oglesby had a hot argument with Umpire Frey because Curry was called out for not touching third. This made three outs and at first the Gaffney team refused to take the field, but was at last persuaded and the game was finished. The locals knocked Martin out in the sixth and Oglesby finished the game in good style. Two errors let in the first two runs for Gaffney. Both teams got several long hits.

Baltimore, August 5.—Manager Tinker of the Chicago Federal league, announced that Pitcher A. Rankin Johnson, formerly of the Boston Americans, today signed a contract with the Chicago Federals.

The Twenty Year Test.

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone. For sale by all dealers."

LAW WILL BE ENFORCED

Strict Compliance With Neutrality Laws Must Be Observed by ALL
(By Associated Press.)
Washington, August 5.—The magnitude of the problem of American neutrality in the European war, what it may mean to future American international relations in how great its importance may prove to Americans at present, came sharply today to the attention of the administration.
Instructions were telegraphed to every collector of customs throughout the country to see that the president's neutrality proclamation is observed to the letter and that vessels clearing from American ports make out the necessary papers.
Tonight, to supplement this, orders were sent to the commander of every revenue cutter to assist the customs officers to prevent violations of the proclamation. For the present the cutter officers and men will act in conjunction with the customs officials in port.
